ACT Summer Workshops for Children and Teens

Altoona Community Theatre is once again offering their series of summer workshops for children and teens. These workshops help students build self-expression, self-confidence and communication skills through theatre games and improvisational activities. Students learn basic theatre terminology as well as the legacy behind the historic Mishler Theatre. The students also gain an understanding of the elements involved in staging a live theatrical production (from auditions to performance) by preparing a short play for family and friends.

Class size is limited to allow for maximum participation by students.

All classes are conducted at ACT’s rehearsal hall at 1213 12th Street (next to Tom and Joe’s Diner and around the corner from the Mishler Theatre).

Please Note:
* Workshops are separated by grade levels – the grade your child just completed.

* Workshops are Monday through Friday as listed. Students registering must be able to attend all class sessions and the performance date. Do not register if your child has any conflicts during the week or two weeks of the workshop.

* ACT reserves the right to remove a child from a workshop for disciplinary/behavioral issues.

* Scholarships are available to students in need – Please check our Financial Aid application to reduce total fees or for the Karen Volpe Scholarship opportunity.
