Actor's Agreement: Anyone participating in this production is asked to agree to the following.

- Arrive promptly for all rehearsals; be attentive and focused and not under the influence of alcohol or any other substance.
- Agree to comply with any pandemic mitigation recommendations from the director, ACT Executive Director, or ACT Board, such as wearing a face mask or shield when necessary.
- Be quiet and non-disruptive in the rehearsal hall when not actively involved in the work in progress.
- Be considerate and appreciative at all times of everyone working on the show, onstage and backstage.
- Refrain from using potentially offensive language.
- Refrain from eating and drinking while actively involved in a rehearsal.
- Notify stage manager of potential absences at least one week in advance (with the exception of personal or family emergency).
- Attend and assist with both load-in (the day we move the set, costumes, props, etc., into the Mishler) and strike (immediately after the final matinee when we tear down and move everything back to ACT).
- Permit ACT to utilize production, head shot, and informal photo images of yourself for publicity and other purposes. In addition, you agree to not make social media posts that could be construed as representing ACT or potentially damaging to ACTs image or identity.

Use of alcohol/drugs prior to or during a rehearsal or performance is strictly prohibited and could result in dismissal from the show.

Actors in ACT productions are volunteers and are not paid to perform in ACT productions. It is the responsibility of the actor to guarantee that, by auditioning, he or she is able to participate on a volunteer basis if cast.
